Baseball and Sports Performance Conference – Purser Center Special Event

Multiple Instructors

Logan University's College of Chiropractic Postgraduate Department is excited and proud to present the Baseball and Sports Performance Conference on our campus at the beautiful state-of-the-art Purser Center. This is the 3rd Annual Conference and promises to be the best one yet. This outstanding conference is designed to explore in detail natural performance enhancement and injury prevention strategies for the sport of baseball and other athletes. Major league team chiropractors will be among this group of excellent instructors. Minor league team DC's will also be present. The conference will provide continuing education hours and a unique opportunity to learn from and network level with the best in the business when it comes to baseball. When you attend this world-class conference this weekend you will be able implement the things that you learned in your office Monday morning. You will definitely be able to take your practice to the next level with this solid information. Here are some of the topics that will be presented at the conference: The Role of the Chiropractor in the Training Room: Applied Science and Practical Application; The Art and Science of Working on a Team: Breaking into Professional Sports; How to Prepare to Enter the Professional Sports Arena; The Global Mechanical Assessment for the Athlete; What the Subluxation Implications Are to Health and Performance; Cervical and Thoracic Spinal Adjustment Relating to Shoulder and Elbow Problems; Chiropractic Examination Procedures to Assess for Subluxation; Safe Nutritional Supplements and Recently Banned Substances; NSF Certification – What It Is and Why IT's Important; Shoulder Stabilizing Program for the Athlete; Shoulder and Elbow Surgeries; Lessons from Working in Professional Baseball (Panel Discussion). Here are some of the speakers scheduled to appear: Dr. Carl Cleveland - President, Cleveland University; Dr. Patrick Hammond – Team Chiropractor Kansas City Royals; Dr. John Downes – Executive Director Emeritus Life University Sport Science Institute; Dr. George Paletta –Team Physician St. Louis Cardinals; Dr. Shawn Caldwell – Team Chiropractor Colorado Rockies and Denver Nuggets; Dr. Cheryl Luther – General Manager Dietary Supplements –NSF for Sport; Dr. Brett Winchester - Team Chiropractor St. Louis Cardinals; Adam Olsen, ATC – Head Athletic Trainer St. Louis Cardinals; Dr. Ralph Filson – Former Team Chiropractor St. Louis Cardinals and St. Louis Rams; and all of the attending Professional Baseball Chiropractic Society (PBCS). These nationally and internationally known speakers will present real “inside baseball” information that you can't get anywhere else. In addition to the outstanding presentations, the world-class speakers, and 12 hours of continuing education, a hot lunch will be provided on Saturday, a hot brunch on Sunday, door prizes, exhibitors, and a wine and cheese reception will make this a conference you will not want to miss. Hope you can join us at the Purser Center on Saturday November 10, and Sunday November 11, 2018 for the 3rd Annual Baseball and Sports Performance Conference. We'll see you there!
