

Logan University
College of Health Sciences
General Education
Program Learning Outcomes (PLO/GELOs)
2019-2020 Academic Catalog

Students will be able to:

Goal 1. Communication

1. Communicate meaningfully with different audiences through written and oral modes.

Goal 2. Higher Order Thinking

2. Integrate questioning, analysis and reasoning to develop solutions to complex problems.

Goal 3. Managing Information

3. Use information from a multitude of sources to make informed decisions for self and with others.

Goal 4. Valuing

4. Make informed, service-orientated and ethical decisions based on the complexities of human cultures.

Knowledge Area: Social & Behavioral Sciences

5. Apply behavioral and social sciences theory, methods and practice to the needs of a global society.

Knowledge Area: Humanities and Fine Arts

6. Relate the impact of social, cultural, linguistics, and historical circumstances of humanity to issues and concerns of society.

Knowledge Area: Mathematics

7. Apply numerical information and reasoning (i.e., quantitative literacy) to examine real world problems or issues.

Knowledge Area: Life and Physical Sciences

8. Apply scientific information, inquiry, and reasoning to diverse problems.