  - POD CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE STATEMENT ......................................... 12
Section 1: Purpose
Logan University’s (Logan) Paralympic Operations Department (POD) is committed to sustaining an ethical department free of conflicts of interest and perceived conflicts of interest. Each Affiliated Individual (as defined below) has the responsibility to administer the affairs of the POD honestly and prudently, and to exercise their best care, skill, and judgment for the sole benefit of the POD. Those persons will exercise the utmost good faith in all transactions involved in their duties, and they will not use their positions with the POD or knowledge gained therefrom for their personal benefit. The interests of the department must be the first priority in all decisions and actions. The POD requires that any of its Affiliated Individuals recognize, attempt to avoid activities or investments that involve, might appear to involve, or could result in a potential conflict of interest.

This policy does not attempt to provide an exhaustive list of every possible circumstance that might give rise to a conflict of interest, but provides examples of situations or “transactions” where potential conflicts of interest often arise. A “transaction” is any contract, transaction, agreement or relationship involving the sale or purchase of goods, services, or rights of any kind, the providing or receipt of a grant or loan, or the establishment of any other financial relationship with the POD.

Section 2: Applicability of Policy
This Conflict of Interest Policy is applicable to all POD Affiliated Individuals. “Affiliated Individuals” include, but are not limited to, members of the POD’s Advisory Council (the Council of the POD), officers, committee members, task force members, hearing panel members, staff members, and volunteers.

Section 3: Definitions
“Conflict of Interest” or “Conflict” exists when an Affiliated Individual’s activities or interests interfere with, influence, or have the potential to interfere with or influence his or her responsibilities on behalf of the POD or undermine the interests of the POD. A “conflict of interest” also exists in the context of athlete or team selection when an Affiliated Individual participates in a selection decision that involves or impacts an athlete with whom the Affiliated Individual has a direct or indirect relationship, or when an Affiliated Individual participates in a benefits or services allocation decision that directly impacts the Affiliated Individual.

Section 4: Areas in Which Conflicts May Arise
Conflicts of interest often arise due to the relationships Affiliated Individuals have with the following third parties:

Persons or entities supplying goods and services to the POD;
Persons or entities leasing property or equipment to the POD;
Persons or entities with whom the POD is dealing or planning to deal in connection with the gift, purchase or sale of real estate, securities or other property;
Competing or affinity organizations;
Donors and others supporting the POD;
Agencies, organizations, and associations which affect the operations of the POD; or Family members, friends, and other employee. A “Family Member” is defined as a spouse, domestic partner, parent, parent of spouse/domestic partner, child, stepchild, child of a domestic partner, sibling, or the sibling of a spouse/domestic partner of an Affiliated Individual.
Person is an officer of another National Governing Body (NGB)/Paralympic Sports Organization (PSO)

Potential conflicts of interest often arise when Affiliated Individuals have an interest, directly or indirectly, with any persons or entities mentioned above. Examples of potential conflicts of interest are listed below. The list below is not intended to be an all-inclusive list of every instance that may create a potential conflict of interest, but, rather, is simply a sample of the types of relationships and activities that may give rise to a conflict of interest. If an Affiliated Individual or other disclosing individual has any question as to whether a relationship or activity may create a conflict of interest, a disclosure must be made.

Examples of potential conflicts of interest that should be disclosed are listed below:

Example 1:
Affiliated Individual or their Family Member owns stock or holds debt or other proprietary interests in any third party dealing or who may potentially deal with the POD.

A POD Advisory Council Member owns a 70% interest in a company seeking to enter into a contract with the POD to provide consulting services.

Example 2:
Affiliated Individual or a Family Member owns a business, maintains a second job, or provides goods or services under a provider, contractor, or consulting agreement, where by the outside business provides goods or services to the POD, the USOPC, or any other NGB.

The POD is contemplating entering into an agreement with a HR consulting company owned by a POD staff member’s husband.

Example 3:
Affiliated Individual or a Family Member holds a position of executive, officer or director, participates in the management of, or is otherwise is employed (or formerly employed) by any third party dealing with the POD.
A POD Advisory Council Member is the CEO of a technology company negotiating a contract with the POD to provide IT services.

Example 4:
Affiliated Individual uses the POD’s time, staff, equipment, supplies, or goodwill for anything other than the POD-approved activities, programs, and purposes.

A POD staff members uses a POD vehicle for a personal road trip.

Example 5:
Affiliated Individual solicits gifts or gratuities using their POD role or accepts personal gifts, loans, gratuities, or discounts from third parties in violation of the POD’s Gift & Entertainment Policy. No personal gift of money should ever be accepted.

A POD staff member using her position within the POD to obtain box seats to a sporting event from a vendor for personal use.
Accepting tickets to an NFL game worth $250 from a business seeking to obtain a contract to provide landscaping services for the POD headquarters.
A POD Advisory Council Member gets paid a commission if the POD enters into a particular contract with a third party.

Example 6:
Affiliated Individual or a Family Member acts as an agent, representative, or consultant to a business whose interests may conflict with the interests of the POD.

A POD Advisory Council Member agrees to promote another NGB in negotiations with potential sponsors or licensees.

Example 7:
Affiliated Individual or a Family Member has a business relationship with a sponsor, supplier, licensee, or vendor of the POD (for a current list of the POD’s sponsors, suppliers, and licensees, go to www.logan.edu\usapp).

A POD staff member’s spouse provides legal services to a POD sponsor.

Example 8:
Affiliated Individual awards the POD business to, or provides favorable treatment to, a business owned or controlled by a volunteer, family member, or personal friend.

The POD is contemplating entering into a contract for landscaping services with a company because the landscaping company is owned by a staff member’s brother.

Example 9:
Affiliated Individual drafts selection procedures or participates and/or votes within a discretionary selection committee of the POD when they have a relationship with an athlete who is potentially impacted by the selection procedures (e.g., as coach, trainer, parent, etc.) or when Affiliated Individual might benefit directly or indirectly from the selection method.
A POD staff member participating in a decision to select an athlete on a team for a sport managed by the POD for World Championships or major international competition when the POD’s staff member is athlete’s current coach or family member.

The athlete representative assisting with drafting, voting on, and/or signing the procedures is also competing for a spot on the team for which the procedures are written.

Example 10:
Affiliated Individual engages in activities or maintains interests, that interfere with or influence, or have the potential to interfere with or influence, the satisfactory performance of their responsibilities on behalf of the POD or undermine the interests of the POD.

A POD Advisory Council Member has a significant client who owns or operates a facility being considered as the host of a POD event.

An Affiliated Individual serves on a hearing panel or appeal panel involving discipline against a member of the Affiliated Individual’s club / team / family.

An athlete is the potential recipient of benefits or services that are being allocated by the POD and participates in the allocation decision.

Example 11:
The POD Advisory Council officer is an officer of another NGB.

Section 5: Interpretation of this Policy
The areas of conflicting interest and relations in those areas which may give rise to a conflict, as listed in Section 4, are not exhaustive. Affiliated Individuals should disclose all relationships and activities which may give rise to a potential conflict of interest, whether or not listed expressly in Section 4.

However, disclosure of a conflict or potential conflict of interest does not necessarily prohibit involvement in the disclosed activity or with the POD. For example, the conflict might not be material enough to be of practical importance, or if it is material, it might be possible for the POD and Affiliated Individual to implement appropriate mitigating measures upon full disclosure of all relevant facts and circumstances. However, it is the POD’s policy that the existence of any of the interests described or similar in nature to those described in Section 4 will be disclosed before any transaction is consummated or any vote taken on an action, contract, relationship, or decision that would give rise to the potential conflict of interest. It is the continuing responsibility of each Affiliated Individual to scrutinize his/her transactions and outside business interests and relationships for potential conflicts and to immediately make such disclosures.
Section 6: Disclosure Policy and Procedure
In addition to the mandatory self-disclosures required from each Affiliated Individual under Sections 9 and 10 of this policy, any individual with a good faith belief that another Affiliated Individual has a conflict of interest may notify the POD’s Ethics Committee of such perceived conflict pursuant to the procedures set forth below. Such notice may be provided anonymously. Furthermore, should any Affiliated Individual become aware of any undisclosed conflict of interest, or any conflict of interest not fully disclosed, such person should make full disclosure of their knowledge of the potential conflict of interest involved to the POD’s Ethics Committee.

Affiliated members are encouraged to disclose conflicts whenever they may arise or whenever the member becomes aware of them, in addition to annual disclosures. Specifically, Advisory Council Members, committee members and members of tribunals or panels must disclose any conflicts when they arise or whenever they become aware of them.

After disclosure of the conflict or potential conflict of interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person and any other relevant party, the Ethics Committee will decide if a conflict of interest exists pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 7 below, as applicable, and if there are mitigating measures that could be implemented to permit the POD to move forward with the transaction or activity.

As a designated committee of the POD, the Ethics committee will have the appropriate athlete representation as stated in the POD handbook so that determinations on potential violations have the appropriate level of athlete representation per the USOPC mandated Audit and Compliance standards.

Section 7: Procedures for Addressing Potential Conflicts of Interest

With Respect to the POD’s Transactions or Business
In the event a potential conflict of interest exists with respect to a proposed transaction or arrangement, then promptly and before any decision is made regarding the proposed transaction or arrangement, the potential conflict of interest will be addressed as follows:

The interested person may make a presentation to the Ethics Committee, which may be convened telephonically, regarding the transaction or arrangement involving the potential conflict of interest.
The interested person will then recuse themselves from any and all discussion and approval (if applicable) of the conflict of interest.
The Ethics Committee will determine whether an actual or apparent conflict of interest exists. For transactions, the Ethics Committee may consider whether a competitive bid or competitive evaluation exists.

If the Ethics Committee determines that an actual or apparent conflict of interest exists, it will determine whether there are mitigating measures that can be implemented to alleviate the conflict and/or what steps the interested individual and/or the POD must take or not take in order to avoid the conflict. The Ethics Committee may determine in some cases that the POD cannot engage in the transaction or arrangement at all due to the conflict or potential conflict of interest.

With Respect to Drafting Selection Procedures and Athlete/Team Discretionary Selection

The following more particularized disclosure requirements and procedures apply in the context of drafting selection procedures and athlete/team discretionary selection decisions in order to ensure that no Affiliated Individual participating in the process has a conflict of interest that will impact his/her ability to make a fair and unbiased decision in the athlete or team selection process.

Any Affiliated Individual involved in the drafting of procedures, including the athlete representative, or on a discretionary selection committee who has a potential conflict of interest must disclose it to the Ethics Committee for review. The following process will be followed:

- The Interested Person may make a presentation to the Ethics Committee, which may be convened telephonically, regarding the potential conflict of interest.
- The interested person will then recuse themselves from any and all discussion regarding the potential conflict of interest.
- The Ethics Committee will determine whether an actual or apparent conflict of interest exists.
- As a designated committee of the POD, the Ethics committee will have the appropriate athlete representation as stated in the POD handbook so that determinations on potential violations have the appropriate level of athlete representation per the USOPC mandated Audit and Compliance standards.

If the Ethics Committee determines that a conflict of interest is exists, it will either mandate the individual’s recusal from the process or determine to what extent, if any, that individual can participate in the process. The Ethics Committee may determine that the individual can still participate in the drafting of the procedures or be included in the discussions for discretionary selection of a team, but not take part in any sign-off, vote, or decision.
For example, a national team coach or high performance director may provide information to the selection committee so long as such information is provided in a fair and unbiased manner and the committee member who disclosed the conflict of interest does not vote toward the final decision.

Under no circumstances will a person with an actual or potential conflict attempt to unduly influence other members of the committee in the selection process.

If the Affiliated Individual is recused and a vacancy on the committee exists, either in the drafting process or on the discretionary selection committee, the POD will use its best reasonable efforts to fill that vacancy. If a vacancy results in the athlete representative position, another athlete representative who meets the qualifications for that committee will be appointed and approved by a representative group of athletes.

With Respect to Reviewing all Conflict of Interest Disclosures

The Ethics committee will also review and make a decision on all conflict of interest disclosures provided. These include, but are not limited to disclosure from members, staff, Advisors Council members, and the Executive director of Parlympic operations. The reviews will be documented in the the Ethics Committee minutes.

Section 8: Violations of the Conflict of Interest Policy

If the Ethics Committee has reasonable cause to believe an Affiliated Individual has failed to disclose an actual or potential conflict of interest, it will promptly inform the Affiliated Individual of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

If, after hearing the Affiliated Individual’s response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Ethics Committee determines the Affiliated Individual has failed to disclose the conflict or potential conflict of interest, it will take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

If Affiliated individual will have the right to an appeals process be a hearing panel. The appeals process for resolution of grievances associated with the disclosure of the conflict of interest will follow the process described in the POD’s Grevances Policy. All decisions by the hearing panel will be final.

While any such failure to disclose a conflict or potential conflict of interest is under investigation, the Affiliated Individual will be precluded from engaging in further decisions of the POD that bear any relation whatsoever to the matter that is the subject of the conflict or potential conflict of interest.
Section 9: Annual Disclosure Statements
Each Affiliated Individual will annually sign and submit to the Ethics Committee and the POD’s Executive Director a statement, using the standardized form, affirming that they:

- Have received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy;
- Have read and understand the policy;
- Have agreed to comply with the policy, and
- Understand that Logan (and its departments including the POD) is a charitable organization and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Each annual disclosure will be reviewed and addressed by the Ethics Committee.

Any actual, perceived, or potential conflict of interest should be disclosed in the annual statement.

Any new POD staff member will submit a conflict of interest disclosure statement within 14 days of his or her assignment within the POD. Any other new Affiliated Individual will submit a conflict of interest disclosure statement by the earlier of 14 days after his or her appointment or his or her first board, committee, or task force meeting. In no event will an Affiliated Individual participate in any decisions to commit the POD to a proposed transaction or in athlete or team selection procedures prior to submission of his or her conflict of interest disclosure statement.

The POD will maintain copies of all Annual Statements submitted under this Section 9 in accordance with the document retention policies and procedures.

Section 10: Periodic Statements/Updates
In addition, each director, officer, committee member, task force member, hearing panel member, and employee will submit to the Ethics Committee a signed statement as necessary describing any new potential conflicts of interest as and when such potential conflicts of interest arises. The POD will maintain copies of all periodic statements or updates submitted under this Section 10.

The POD Advisory Council will have its members provide a Conflict of Interest disclosure during its meeting and the disclosures will be documented in the minutes.

Section 11: Conflict of Interest Policy Lead
The Executive Director of the POD can be contacted with any questions about this policy.
Section 12: Anti-Retaliation Statement
In many instances, the POD must rely on individual staff and/or members of the sport(s) it manages and governs to report to the appropriate POD staff cases where it appears that a member or members of the POD and its sport(s) community are not complying with applicable law or policy. A major deterrent to such reporting is the fear that the person or persons against whom the report is made will retaliate against the person making the report. The purpose of this statement is to clearly articulate that the POD prohibits retaliation against those who make bona fide reports of possible non-compliance.

The POD’s, administrators, and staff shall not intimidate or take retaliatory action, against any member of the POD and its sport(s) community or a relative of such a person, who makes a report in good faith and without malice.

This statement also prohibits persons from knowingly and intentionally making a report of non-compliance that is false.

Section 13: Appeals Process
For Athletes with Questions Regarding this Conflict of Interest Policy
The Athlete Ombudsman provides cost-free, independent and confidential advice regarding athlete rights; resolving disputes or grievances; and any sport rule, policy, or process, including NGB-athlete agreements, codes of conduct or team selection procedures. The Athlete Ombudsman can also help athletes connect with legal counsel or mental health resources if needed. Athletes may contact the Athlete Ombudsman at:
