

Congress passed the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA) in response to the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The CRRSAA Act established the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund II (HEERFII) to provide students with emergency financial aid.

In order to award HEERFII funds to students, the Department of Education (ED) requires all institutions to provide regular information regarding the funding, awarding and number of students receiving these emergency grants.

- The Department of Education notified Logan University that it was approved to receive HEERFII funds totaling $425,016 of which $112,142 was to be awarded in direct emergency grants to students. The university made the decision to award the university portion ($312,874) to students as well, for a total of $425,016 in student grants. The university completed the necessary certification and agreement for the funds while developing a process to award the emergency grants to students.
- In order to qualify for the emergency grants, students had to meet the following criteria:
 - Were enrolled during the Spring trimester as of April 9, 2021,
 - Meet U.S. Citizen or national, permanent resident, or other eligible non-citizen status
 - Excludes Logan faculty or staff enrolled as a student, and high school dual enrollment student
- Logan University determined 1619 students were eligible to receive a grant and distributed an amount to all 1619 students.
- Pell grant recipients received a $500 grant. This totaled $51,000. The remaining amount totaling $374,016 was given to the non-Pell grant students for an amount of either $247 or $246 each.
- All eligible students received an email notification approximately a week before receiving the grant.
- As of April 2021, the HEERFII fund has been exhausted. The full amount of $425,016 has been awarded and this is the final quarterly report.
